In Memory of Harry Dombkiewicz

A few words from Deacon Dave:

Now that all the holiday seasons are over, after the Baptism of the Lord Jesus this weekend, we will enter Ordinary Time in the liturgical year. Our lives are more than ordinary. We are made in the image and likeness of God our creator. We need to recognize that and share it with those around us. As we begin this New Year, it's my hope we can do our best to grasp the Word of God each week and go out to make this world a better place. Much work needs to be done for us to accomplish this daily task. For the most part, it just doesn't happen by itself. We need to continue to share the many gifts we have been given as best we can. Some days it can be a challenge to come out of ourselves and give to others. We have all received the same Baptismal call as Jesus did when he was Baptized. Let's try hard to fulfill the promise to love, serve and care for others. One constant in our lives is change. If we feel like life is letting us down, look to change our attitude to one of prayer, service and focus on others. We may be surprised when we change our attitude to one of gratitude and thankfulness. It will only happen if we are open to the Holy Spirit. Continue to pray for each other, the parish and all who serve us in so many ways.

One little note on the "business" side of being the Parish Administrator. It's very important to use your church envelopes. Once a year when the parish financial report is completed and submitted to the Diocese, one item that is looked at is the use of parish envelopes. It gives a percentage of the amount of envelopes distributed and used in return. It helps with budgeting, planning and mostly helps with your financial contributions that you and the parish may have to prove. Many envelopes still remain at the rectory. You can make arrangements to pick them up or maybe have them delivered. The use of envelopes helps us in many ways.

P.S. I will be meeting with Diocese officials in the very near future concerning my appointment here. I will keep you posted of any news or changes.

God Bless you throughout the year, peace always,

Deacon Dave

Let us remember in our prayers the sick.

Please pray for the healing touch of Jesus' hand for those who are ill, especially: Anna Lewewski, Patricia Milas, John Berra, Russell Serewicki, Henry Superczynski, Gary Sengbusch, Richard Daszkiewicz, Steve Weidmann, William Taylor, Bob Everitt, Jessica Frysz, Amy Herdlein, Christopher Zdonczyk, Sharon Holtz, Leonard Tortorice and all the sick of our parish. If you have a name to add or a deletion, please call the rectory office. IF YOU KNOW OF SOMEONE WHO IS HOSPITALIZED, PLEASE NOTIFY THE PARISH OFFICE.

Offertory: Week of January 5, 2014

We have been given many blessings. How will we share our treasure with others? All of the parish financial resources depend on the donations of the parishioners. In over half of the parables in the Bible, Jesus talks about money or material possessions.

Envelope #	Loose	Envelopes	Total
Regular 99	$163.00	$1611.00	$1774.00

Thank you and God bless you for your contribution to God and your church.

2014 Offertory Envelopes can be picked up in the parish office.

Parenting Perspective. Mary kept all these things, reflecting on them in her heart (Luke 2:19). Christmas Day is over, but the Christmas season has just begun – at least for Christians if not the secular culture. Take a moment today to ponder the awesome miracle of your child's birth. Tell him and her the story of their birth and a hope you have for them.

Roe v Wade Observance Mass. Saturday, Jan. 18 at 4:30pm at Blessed John Paul II Parish, 2052 Lakeview Road, Lake View, NY. Celebrant & Homilist, Most Reverend Richard J. Malone, Bishop of Buffalo. During Mass, the diocesan Office of Pro-Life Activities will present the annual Pro-Vita Awards. These awards are intended to recognize people who have labored tirelessly for the pro-life cause and to give them strength, encouragement, and support. This year's recipients are: Mary Clare O'Brien, Rory Reichenberg, David Calire, Denis Coakley, Deacon Ed & Mary Zablocki, Eileen Needham. For more information call Pro-Life Activities at 716-847-2205.

Light a Candle for Life on the evening of Wednesday, Jan. 22. Everyone is encouraged to place a candle (electric or real) in the front window of their homes and say a prayer for life. The candle serves as a reminder of the 50 million unborn babies who have been aborted since the sorrowful Supreme Court decision of Roe vs. Wade in 1973. Our Lady of Guadalupe Pray for Us!

March for Life 2014. Call or email the pro-life office to make your reservation. Prayerfully consider making a donation so that we can ensure the right to life is not just afforded for some, but for all born and unborn. For more information visit <http://www.buffalodiocese.org/prolife>.

Compeer for Seniors Volunteers demonstrate that friendly encouragement and caring support can truly enrich a lonely life. So often many seniors are losing many of those with whom they have enjoyed longstanding relationships. Many compeer seniors are often lacking the supportive friendships that so many of us take for granted, and they are struggling with loneliness and isolation. We currently have 80 volunteers making a huge difference. Information: 716-883-3331 or sarah@compeerbuffalo.org.

Catholic Charities- You can create a legacy of HOPE for all seasons. There are a number of planned giving opportunities that can ensure your legacy will live on and you will continue to make a difference in the lives of people in need through the work of Catholic Charities. Each opportunity has a benefit for you, too! To explore the options, contact Chuck Marra at (716) 218-1400 or at chuckmarra@ccwny.org. Find Catholic Charities at ccwny.org, facebook.com/ccbuffalo and twitter.com/ccbuffalo.
