Offertory: Week of July 14, 2013

We have been given many blessings. How will we share our treasure with others? All of the parish financial resources depend on the donations of the parishioners. In over half of the parables in the Bible, Jesus talks about money or material possessions.

A Vocation View: We are like Martha. There's plenty to be anxious about but only one thing is required of us. For five minutes today be like Mary; rest with Jesus and ask Him what He required of you. If God is calling you to a Church vocation, call Fr. Walter Szczesny at 847-5535.

Catholic Charities -Christmas in July-Ladies of Charity, an affiliate volunteer organization of Catholic Charities, makes Christmas brighter for nearly 4,000 WNY children and teens each year. Catholic Charities' clients in need benefit. You can help by donating new toys or gifts now through October. Teen gifts would be most helpful, or consider a monetary gift and let the Ladies do the shopping. Teen gift ideas: sports team t-shirts and ball caps, fast food gift cards, purses, watches, wallets, socks, CDs, makeup kits, bath and body gifts. Thank you for your generosity! If you have questions, call 895-4001.

July 21, 2013-Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Cell phones, emails, faxes, texts and voice mails can reduce our lives to a continual series of interrupted moments. Listen to Jesus in today's gospel: "You are anxious about many things" robbing us of the precious time needed to BE with others. Quality time is QUANTITY time.

Triduum to Sainte Anne, mother of Mary, grandmother.

The name Anne was derived from the Hebrew Hannah, meaning 'grace'. Ste. Anne was born in Bethlehem and married Joachim of Jerusalem. Many times pictures and statues of Ste. Anne will show Ste. Anne and Mary with Mary holding the infant Jesus. In Ste. Anne's honor there will be a Triduum starting on Friday, July 26 with Mass at 8:30 a.m. in church, continuing Saturday, July 27 at the 4 p.m. Mass, and concluding on Sunday, July 28 at the 10:30 Mass. Please join us for as many of the Masses as you can. Following the 10:30 Sunday Mass there will be a coffee hour in the Convent. All are invited to attend.

Some History on our Church, Part 3:

In 1942 the church celebrated its 50th Anniversary. The artwork in the church Sanctuary was repainted for that occasion by local artist Jozef Mazur (http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Jozef_Mazur; <http://albionpolonia.com/mazur>). The second half of the century has been a time of challenge and change for St. John Kanty. As the human landscape of American life has changed since the World War II years, the parish has had to mold itself to the needs of the people in a new American society. Immigration from Poland has ebbed and flowed, and parishioners live far beyond the boundaries of the East Buffalo area. Many of the challenges and changes are physical; others less tangible but no less real. In 1948 a fire occurred in the sanctuary of the church just one year after the mortgage for the Lyceum had been paid. Repairs were made to the walls of the sanctuary and nave, and the mural in the apse of the church had to be repainted. On January 12, 1955 a second fire raged through the church. The three alarm fire engulfed the interior of the church, still decorated for the Christmas season. Ten stained glass windows burst from extreme heat pressure, and organ pipes fell to the church floor. The fire also destroyed the wooden main altarpiece, two side altars, murals and statuary. Remarkably, the life size sculpture of The Last Supper, originally set in the main altar was saved. The sculptor, Frank Pedevilla, lived and worked in the Rochester area. Originally intended for the Cathedral of Notre Dame in Montreal, because of the additional border crossing fees Notre Dame was unable to accept delivery. Seen in a store window by someone from St. John Kanty, a deal was struck for the purchase and delivery to the East side church. This magnificent wooden sculpture now rests in the choir loft for all to see. Jozef Mazur was again busy, this time as both glass stainer and painter, (<http://www.buffaloh.com/a/DCTNRY/mat/stained/mazur/tc.html>), creating four new stained glass windows for the Sanctuary as well as the painting of Christ the King, the angels and the cherubs in the apse. The primary features of the windows honored Our Lady of Czestochowa (donated by the artist), Jesus in the garden with the little children (paid for with pennies raised by the school children), Pope Pius X, the first advocate of frequent communion, and the Blessed Mother and Child with St. Dominic and St. Theresa, a gift of the Rosary Society (see Artistic Highlights of St. John Kanty Church: www.stjohnkantychurchbuffalo.wordpress.com). (to be continued)

Compeer for Senior Citizens. Become a caring friend to a senior. Compeer volunteers demonstrate that friendly encouragement and caring support can truly enrich a lonely life. So often many seniors lose many of their longstanding relationships that they have counted on for years. Family moves, friends pass away, neighbors change. Struggling with loneliness and isolation they often lack the supportive friendships that so many of us take for granted. Currently over 80 volunteers are making a huge difference, but there are also 65 seniors throughout Erie County waiting for a friend. Contact 883-331 or email staff@compeerbuffalo.org.

Meals on Wheels for Western New York needs more volunteers to help feed the growing number of homebound elderly and disable individuals in Erie County, including members of most Catholic parishes. It's easy to volunteer and takes just 60 minutes a day, with volunteers working as frequently as they'd like. Meals on Wheels needs both servers and drivers. To learn more about volunteering, call 822-2002, ext. 21.

Our Daily Bread for August will feature host Father Paul D. Seil and Father Joe Gullo. Tune in as Father Paul discusses the relationship between food and saints. On the menu are an Italian cheese bread, Capanata, and Bananas Foster. The show airs Saturday, August 10 on WKBW-Channel 7 at 5:30 am and Noon. For information and recipes visit www.odbtv.org.
