Offertory: Week of May 19, 2013

We have been given many blessings. How will we share our treasure with others? All of the parish financial resources depend on the donations of the parishioners. In over half of the parables in the Bible, Jesus talks about money or material possessions.

May 26, 2013-Trinity Sunday

The words of Jesus in today's gospel, "I have many things to say to you, but you cannot hear them now" could have been said by any parent. It can be frustrating because our desire to guide is often misinterpreted or poorly received. We cannot program our children. We can only teach, lead, and trust the Spirit of truth will guide them.

Some History on our Church, Part 2:

Rev. Thomas Flaczek served as the first pastor of the new St. John Kanty Parish Community from 1892-1895. During his tenure the parish was composed of over 250 families with over 300 children. On September 4, 1894 the parish school was opened with an enrollment of 325 children and a staff of three Felician sisters and three lay teachers; that is an average of over 50 students per teacher! By 1925 enrollment had reached a peak of 1,574 students. By 1927 Fr. Garstka, who served as pastor from 1920-1941, was pressed for the need of a new school auditorium. The school basement could only accommodate 300 people and was already condemned by the Fire Authority as unsafe, since it lacked proper exits and ventilation. After three years of deliberation, Fr. Garstka chose J. Zakrzewski & Son to construct a new Lyceum Building. Eight parcels of land(including homes) were purchased at a cost of $53,000. Bishop William Turner granted a loan of $350,000 for construction.

Ground breaking for the new Lyceum took place on June 30, 1930. Envisioned as a center for the moral, physical and spiritual development of the community, Bishop William Turner laid the cornerstone of the Lyceum on September 29, 1930. The main hall could hold 2000 people for concerts, movies, dances, plays and meetings. Equipped with the latest sound and lighting equipment the movie sound projector was on par with downtown theatres. The Lyceum also housed two classrooms for 8th grade, six bowling alleys, club rooms, meeting rooms and a gymnasium. On September 13, 1933 the Lyceum was finished and officially dedicated by Rev. Msgr. Francis Kasprzak. During the depression years the Lyceum served over 1200 students through a Federal Grant for an adult education program. In 1937 Rev. Stanley Kulpinski established the Labor College, and 32 teachers taught courses in the arts, drafting, public speaking, and carpentry. During the 40's and 50's the Lyceum was the popular gathering place for dances featuring the 'big band' sounds. (to be continued)

Memorial Day-Thirty years ago, President Ronald Reagan spoke these words:"Memorial Day is a time to take stock of the present, reflect on the past, and renew our commitment to the future of America. Today, as in the past, there are problems that must be solved and challenges that must be met. We can tackle them with our full strength and creativity only because we are free to work them out in our own way. We owe this freedom of choice and action to those men and women in uniform who have served this nation and its interests in times of need...we are forever indebted to those who have given their lives that we might be free." At Catholic Charities, we too are thankful for their sacrifice. If you or someone you know has lost a loved one through military service or is grieving from any loss, we are here to help. For information on our services, call 856-4494.
