EMBRACING CHANGE IN THE LITURGYWEEK 10-14 days and counting*Deeper Understanding

If we recognize the biblical references that underlie the liturgical texts, we will have a fuller understanding of their meaning. For example, Eucharistic Prayer 1 includes the following passage:

Be pleased to look upon these offerings
with a serene and kindly countenance,
and to accept them,
as you were pleased to accept the gifts of your servant Abel the just,
the sacrifice of Abraham, our father in faith,
and the offering of your high priest Melchizedek,
a holy sacrifice, a spotless victim. (The Order of Mass, 93)

If we do not know who Abel (Gn 4:4) and Melchizedek (Gn 14:18-20) are and if we do not understand the importance of Abraham's sacrifice (Gn 15:7-21; 22:1-14), we will not fully appreciate the concept of sacrifice and how our celebration of the eucharistic sacrifice ties us to our ancestors in the faith, from the very beginning.

For those interested in utilizing online resources, just do a search for 'Roman Missal Changes', and many websites will pop up. One example is <http://www.romanmissalchanges.com/>

In the Missalettes you will find a copy of the new translation that will be helpful in participating at Mass. These cards are to be left in the books so that everyone who comes to Mass may use them and become familiar with the new translation.

Mini Bazaar/Envelope Pick up
December 3 and 4

Envelopes can be picked up after all Masses in the cafeteria the weekend of December 3 and 4. There will be a mini bazaar including wonderful homemade baked goods. Oplatki will also be available. Be sure to mark your calendars.

We are in need of prizes for our Chinese Auction. If you can donate a prize please drop it off at the rectory.

November 13th 2011-33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

As the man in today's gospel entrusted his servants with his money, so God has 'entrusted' our family to us. Like the good servants we are expected, not to play it safe, but to selflessly and totally invest ourselves in each other.

Nov. 11-12

Did you make a good first impression? The next free monthly seminar presented by the Catholic Charities Department of Workforce and Education will be Nov. 16 from 3:30-4:30 p.m. At the Seneca Babcock Community Center, 1168 Seneca St., Buffalo, exploring the importance of making a first impression and how to make sure you leave a positive one! The series of six monthly seminars are designed to enhance job-readiness skills and answer questions about college. For more information, to register or find out about upcoming opportunities, call 893-3500.

November, Month of All Souls

Remember those bound to you by love. During the month of November at Masses a special remembrance is made for those dear to you. All Souls envelopes are included in your envelope box. If needed there are some located in church. We ask that you kindly print the names of your loved ones on the envelope. These may be placed in the collection basket.

Rosary Meeting

Sunday, November 13th after the 10:30 Mass

Money Matters: We have experienced some unexpected expenses due to water damage in the school and rectory. According to the contractor, Weaver Metal and Roofing, plugged gutters on the school building and a missing downspout on the rectory are causing interior damage in each building. Weaver has quoted $3,400 to clean the gutters and replace the downspout (interior repairs will be addressed once the leaks are repaired). If you are able, please use the yellow monthly building maintenance envelope or any envelope with "roof repairs" written on it and drop it in the weekly collection basket. Every little bit helps. Thank you for your generosity!
