EMBRACING CHANGE IN THE LITURGY*WEEK 9-21 days and counting*Will the changes be noticeable?

In the third edition of the Roman Missal, almost every prayer in the Mass—those spoken by the priest and those spoken by the people—has been retranslated from the Latin to English. Some prayers now recited by memory will need to be relearned, and the familiar language of many prayers recited by the priest will change.

In preparing the new translation, the translators were asked to make the English texts conform more closely to the Latin originals and to retain traditional theological vocabulary that communicates important concepts of the faith. The language that the faithful will hear and pray is more formal and somewhat more complex than the language of ordinary conversation. It conveys rich theological concepts and retains biblical language and images.

The Word of God in Scripture and the Eucharist

Translating the liturgical texts with a close eye to their correspondence with the texts of Scripture can help us to develop a greater appreciation of the close links between the prayers of the Mass and Sacred Scripture. These close links can help draw us more deeply into the theological meaning of the texts. For example, before the Communion Rite, the priest breaks the Host and shows it to the people, saying:

Behold the Lamb of God,
Behold him who takes away the sins of the world.
Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.
(The Order of Mass, 132)

The first part of this prayer echoes the words of John the Baptist, heralding the coming of the Christ: “The next day he [John] saw Jesus coming toward him and said, ‘Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world’” (Jn 1:29). In the same way, we who are united in the Body of Christ in the Sacrament of Baptism and strengthened in the Eucharist are called to point others to Jesus through our words and actions.

The second part of this prayer reflects the words of the Book of Revelation: “Then the angel said to me, ‘Write this: Blessed are those who have been called to the wedding feast of the Lamb’” (Rev 19:9). In this prayer, we are not rejoicing that we may receive the Eucharist. Instead, we rejoice for those who have been found worthy to share in the heavenly Liturgy, the supper of the Lamb, and we pray that one day, we may join them in the everlasting life of the Kingdom of God.

In the Missalettes you will find a copy of the new translation that will be helpful in participating at Mass. These cards are to be left in the books so that everyone who comes to Mass may use them and become familiar with the new translation.

November 6th 2011-32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

The bridesmaids in today’s gospel were considered ‘foolish’ because they let their lamps go out. Don’t be foolish. Pay attention to the small acts necessary to keep the flame alive in all your relationships.

St. John Kanty Choir

A warm thank you to so many wonderful folks who attended the Annual Choir Mass and Dinner. It was a pleasure to see so many happy familiar faces, especially during the sing-a-long of old songs. On behalf of the St. John Kanty Choir, we Thank You and look forward to seeing you next year!

Richard B. Cislo
Chairman

November, Month of All Souls

Remember those bound to you by love. During the month of November at Masses a special remembrance is made for those dear to you. All Souls envelopes are included in your envelope box. If needed there are some located in church. We ask that you kindly print the names of your loved ones on the envelope. These may be placed in the collection basket.

Rosary Meeting

Sunday, November 13th after the 10:30 Mass

Money Matters: We have experienced some unexpected expenses due to water damage in the school and rectory. According to the contractor, Weaver Metal and Roofing, plugged gutters on the school building and a missing downspout on the rectory are causing interior damage in each building. Weaver has quoted $3,400 to clean the gutters and replace the downspout (interior repairs will be addressed once the leaks are repaired). If you are able, please use the yellow monthly building maintenance envelope or any envelope with “roof repairs” written on it and drop it in the weekly collection basket. Every little bit helps. Thank you for your generosity!

If you have any questions regarding parish finances, feel free to contact any of the Finance Council members:
