EMBRACING CHANGE IN THE LITURGYWEEK 6-42 days and counting*Why does the Church change the Liturgy?

In its Liturgy, the Church always attempts to follow the "norm of the holy Fathers." This effort "requires not only the preservation of what our immediate forebearers have handed on to us, but also an understanding and a more profound pondering of the Church's entire past...this broader view allows us to see how the Holy Spirit endows the People of God with a marvelous fidelity in preserving the unalterable deposit of faith, even though there is a very great variety of prayers and rites" (General Instruction of the Roman Missal, no. 9).

The Liturgy must, therefore, always celebrate and make present the Paschal Sacrifice of Christ-his saving Passion, death, Resurrection, and Ascension. However, over time, it may become necessary to make certain changes, such as adding prayers for recently canonized saints and adding texts that reflect the needs that the People of God wish to bring to God in prayer. The third edition of the Roman Missal makes such additions and provides a fresh translation of the Latin texts of the existing content of the Missal.

Where can I turn for help in understanding these changes?

The first stop for catechesis and formation regarding these changes is your parish and diocese. All the faithful are encouraged to take advantage of parish efforts. You can attend catechetical sessions, read articles in the parish bulletin or newsletter or the diocesan newspaper, listen closely to homilies that help explain the changes, and come early to Mass to practice new musical settings for the prayers.

In addition, many dioceses, schools, universities, and retreat centers will offer programs to help people understand and appreciate the new translation. You can take advantage of these programs where possible.

The official Web site for the third edition of the Roman Missal is found at www.usccb.org/romanmissal. A variety of resources will be posted that may help you.

Catholic publishers and national organizations will publish many resources, in print and online, to help you negotiate this time of change. Check out your local Catholic bookstore to see what is available.

Money Matters: The 4 member Finance Council (FC) is please to inform you that our money saving efforts in regards to gas, electric, telephone and dumpster service are now in place. We hope to soon recognize savings in these areas, as well as others.

As you may know, SJK is running a fundraiser for the month of November. Tickets are available in the vestibule of Church. Depending on the Parish support for this effort, we will decide if it is done quarterly, semiannually or more frequently. If you are able, please consider supporting this fundraising effort. The FC is also looking into undertaking an increased offertory program offered by the Diocese, details will be forthcoming in the next few weeks. Many times we fail to recognize that when our personal expenses increase, our Parish expenses also increase.

We wish to assure our friends from St. Adalbert that the rental income and your weekly offering will be credited to the St. Adalbert ledger page. We respect your wishes to continue supporting the Oratory, and this ledger will ensure a proper accounting of all income and expenses.

If you have any questions regarding parish finances, feel free to contact any of the Finance Council members:
