Message for Easter from Deacon Rick. . . .

Happy Easter to one and all! What a joyous time of the year. With the long hard winter we just all went through and the coming of spring, we get that feeling of a new beginning. We have walked the path of Jesus through this lent and Holy Week to celebrate his Glorious Resurrection; which reinforces our hope in the one true God, our Lord and Savior, Christ Jesus.

Over the past three weeks of my time here, I have also been working on some new beginnings. The convent has a new hot water heater and the school kitchen has new faucets. You may have seen scaffolding in the church. We have painters working to repair past water damage, which gives us a fresh new look where we were flaking away. We even replaced lights that were burnt out for many years. This past week, we have signed off on the transfer of the St. Adalbert's rectory to the Pro-Life office of the Diocese, for their use in living out the prolife message by our actions in support of life – not just in our words. We see these outward signs of new beginnings as an indication of inward new beginnings in our future.

On Divine Mercy Sunday, the Holy Father, Pope Francis, is issuing a declaration of a Holy Year dedicated to 'God's Mercy'. We want to be a part of that prayerful time to ask for God's Mercy to aid all those who are being persecuted for their faith in Jesus. The need for Mercy is not just in the Middle East, but it is needed everywhere; wherever evil has found a home. I look forward to any suggestions that you may have in the observance of this Holy Year. We will be hearing more about this from the diocese in the coming weeks.

I thank you for the warm welcome you have shown me in my assignment here. My door is always open to your comments and suggestions in ways which we can build up the body of Christ.

Peace

Deacon Rick

Faith Moment Reflection

Today's Gospel gives us great joy as we hear of the Resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ. But for Mary of Magdala, Peter and John, there was, at least initially, great sadness because they did not find Jesus where he was supposed to be...in the tomb. They did not yet understand that he had to rise from the dead. More than two millennia later, we too do not always find Jesus where we expect him to be. Instead, Jesus comes to us, sometimes in unexpected ways, even as he did for Mary of Magdala, Peter, John and the other disciples. For now, keep seeking Jesus and trust that, even if we do not find him where we expect to, he will always find us. Have Blessed Easter.

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord A Family Perspective

That first Easter morning was confusing. Jesus was missing and Mary Magdalene, Peter and John "did not know" what to do. In family life there are confusing moments when "we don't know" what to do. Like the apostles we are Easter people when we believe and trust in each other even when all seems lost.

Easter Sunday – April 5, 2015

The glorious feast of the Resurrection of Christ proclaims, forever, that life is greater than death. Jesus commanded us to preach his good news to all peoples in all places at all times. If you feel God is calling you to minister in His Church as a priest, deacon or religious, call Father Walter Szczesny ~ 716-847-5535. You can also check out the "Priest of the Month" stories on our website ~ www.buffalovocations.org!

DYNGUS DAY...Monday, April 6th. If you are interested in participating please meet Ted Kniazuk by Corpus Christi Church at 4:30 on Dyngus Day.

Marriage Moment. Easter Monday. Lent is over and we are in the time of Easter - the time in Emmaus when the disciples recognized Jesus in the breaking of the bread. Be mindful tonight as you break bread (or rice, noodles or potatoes) with your beloved that Jesus dwells in him or her. Pause.

USCCB-Word of Life - Every child, at every age of development, brings us God's smile and invites us to recognize that life is his gift, a gift to be welcomed with love and preserved with care always and at every moment.

Catholic Charities - Appeal 2015 - Collection will take place in the cafeteria this weekend. To date our parish has raised $6637.00-thank you. If you haven't donated you may still do so. Please ensure we reach our goal of $10.9 million by responding with your contribution or pledge today. Your donation helps educate, counsel and train parents, provide basic assistance to families and the hope of a brighter future to youth through our workforce and education programs. Find Good Within. Share God's Goodness. Please support the 2015 Catholic Charities Appeal.
